Main Idea

- What props could you use?
- What analogies or common references could you use?
- What context can you provide? What background do people need?
- Who was involved? Who are your characters?
- Where did this happen? What was it like?
- How did it happen? What about the process can you share?
- Why does it matter?
- When did this happen (in your life, or in absolute time?)
- What is cool? What fascinates you about it?
- What are some juicy descriptive words you could use?
